The Aims and Objectives of the Society

1 To preserve, make known and encourage the practice in the United Kingdom of Folk Dances from across the world, while respecting their traditional form.

2 To promote the knowledge and practice of Folk Dances by means of classes, demonstrations, social activity, publications in all forms, the Internet and other suitable methods which may include a periodical.

3 To provide and encourage for the public benefit research into, and study of, the origin, development and traditional practice of Folk Dances.

4 To encourage the performance, playing, collection of, and research into, Folk Dance music with particular regard to traditional styles.
