To Book a Teacher from this List

Choose a teacher. Negotiate with them directly, agreeing on –

- * date
- * time
- * venue.
- * travel arrangements (you usually pay for their transport costs)
- * how many hours of teaching you would like
- * what you're hoping the teaching will cover

To claim under the “Free Teachers to Groups” scheme

When a class or group Affiliates to the SIFD, they can choose whether to pay a standard fee, which entitles them to claim, each year, the tuition fees for up to 5 teaching hours under the “Free Teachers to Groups” scheme, or pay a higher fee which entitles them to claim up to 10 teaching hours, as long as SIFD funds permit.

Associated groups are eligible for up to 5 teaching hours.

The hours can be spread over several mini-sessions with several different teachers, or all “spent” over one weekend with one teacher.

If you are intending to make a claim under the “Free Teachers to Groups” scheme, please contact the treasurer,

Judith Payling – judithcpayling@yahoo.co.uk - when making a booking, to let her know who you’ve booked, and the date you’ve booked.

Judith can then budget for the fees.

Most importantly, when the event has taken place, please confirm this with Judith, so she can pay the teacher promptly.
